

Basic Peace Plan for the World

A real peace plan for the world would have to be based mainly on Mick Jagger's claim that you can't always get what you want, but you can usually get what you need. A couple of other principles would need to be adhered to:

1. The globalist practice of using manufactured victim groups to beat and guilt-trip real nations out of existence must cease.
2. It is not racism or apartheid for a nation and its people to want to own their own country or to refuse immigration deemed dangerous to such ownership.

A super negotiator like US President Trump could probably hammer such a plan together in a couple of weeks. The leaders of the United States, Russia, Israel, Iran, and China, at a minimum, would have to be involved. In particular, Russia would have to be offered enough in the way of benefits to enlist her aid in fixing several of the other problems.

The leaders of Western Europe and Great Britain might or might not be involved; those nations have no future under their present leadership for obvious reasons. There is no one government of the Muslim world; the Muslim world would be represented at such a meeting by representatives of its most powerful nations.

Again the most basic idea of the plan would be that everybody gets what they need, but not everything that they might want. The breakdown would go as follows:

To Russia: the NATO alliance would be disbanded; American and NATO forces would be pulled out of the Balkans, leaving Serbia free to retake Kosovo. The perverted scheme to surround Russia with NATO and/or US forces would be dismantled; all existing sanctions against Russia would be repealed.

From Russia: Russia would be asked to assist the people of Western Europe in overthrowing the rogue governments currently in power there and in moving the muslim/Kalergi-plan invaders back to their own countries. Likewise Russia would be asked to assist in locating a place for a "palestinian" state within the muslim world sufficiently far from Israel. Russia would be asked to join the United States in shutting down the global arms race to the extent possible and in diverting most of the money and effort involved in that race to a combined program of worldwide infrastructure development and space exploration. Russia would be asked to suspend all business with Iran until war dangers between Iran and Israel had ceased and Iranian society had begun to be governed in a rational manner.

To Israel: Israel would be given the Gaza Strip and the West Bank of the Jordan River and complete ownership of the city of Jerusalem. All muslim "Palestinians" would be removed to the Muslim world; Christian "Palestinians" if any such exist would be removed to Western Europe or the United States or, at the discretion of Israel, allowed to remain in Israel.

From Israel: all geopolitical games would cease; all military operations in Syria would cease other possibly than a defensive position on the Golan Heights to prevent those heights from ever being used to bombard northern Israel as was the case prior to the 1967 war. All drilling for oil and/or related activities on those heights would cease. All connections to the Rothschild banking combine would cease; all interference in American politics would cease; AIPAC would be disbanded.

To Iran: Iran would be allowed to build its version of gas and oil pipelines through Syria and Iraq, to participate in OBOR, and to conduct ordinary civilian business and in surrounding countries.

From Iran: Iran would be required to cease military operations in Syria and Lebanon; Iran would be required to formally recognize Israel and Israel's right to exist; Iran would be required to disband its sharia-based legal system and related barbarous practices including its "morality police". Iran would be required to eliminate the connection between its Muslim religious leaders and its government, to hold supervised elections.

To the United States: the United States would be allowed cease being the policeman of the world and the consumer of last resort. American industry and infrastructure would be rebuilt, it's military would be scaled to a level similar to that of Russia or China, and the enormous resources devoted to a worldwide military presence would be diverted to productive endeavors. Southern and Northern border walls would be built and enforced and democrat voting blocks imported from the third world would be returned to their places of origin. A reasonable financial and monetary system for the US would be created utilizing ideas from the larouchepac, the public banking movement, and the crypto currency world. The Federal Reserve and the existing trans-Atlantic banking system would be unwound and abolished. The US would join the OBOR trade route with rational trade policies being implemented.

From the United States: the reforms suggested on the bearfabrique website (<http://www.bearfabrique.org/Misc/reforms.html>) would be implemented; the criminal democrat party would be outlawed and banned. The US manned space program (<http://www.bearfabrique.org/blackspace.htm>) would be brought out of black-op status and shared with the world. NATO would be shut down. Vulture capitalist operations which impact other nations would be shut down. The existing military/industrial complex would gradually be replaced with a program of massive improvement of the human condition.

To the people of Europe: the Kalergi plan for the ongoing genocide of the indigenous people of Europe would cease; the Muslim invaders brought into Europe by elite criminals and the EU would be returned to their own countries. Europe would be connected to the OBOR trade nexus. NATO and the EU would be disbanded. Reasonable financial and monetary systems for the nations of Europe would be created utilizing ideas from the larouchepac, the public banking movement, and the crypto currency world.

From the people of Europe: The EU would be shut down and its leaders brought to justice. The governments and political parties involved in the Kalergi plan would be shut down and their leaders brought to justice.
